

The David Festival Wants to Help Your Church Integrate Worship With the Arts

Your congregation is invited to the David Festival, www.davidfestival.ca, an annual celebration of worship and the arts in Scugog.

David Festival 2016 happens April 8-9, 2016 – streamlined and with an exciting line-up of experts to equip Christians to worship God through the arts.

Keynote speaker and presenter Carolyn Arends, a singer-songwriter, author of three critically acclaimed books and winner of two Dove Awards and Juno nominations, will lead participants in an exploration of the integration of worship with the arts. Karen Burke, director of the Toronto Mass Choir, along with other experts, will lead creative and practical workshops designed to build skills and insights around worship and the arts.

There are workshops for choirs, for worship bands, on prayer, issues in contemporary worship music, drama and using media well in churches.

The majority of the events will be held on Saturday, April 9 at Uxbridge Baptist Church, Uxbridge, Ont., with a Friday night event (April 8) especially for church leaders with Carolyn Arends held at New Song Church, Port Perry.

Youth groups will be especially interested in a worship concert on Friday, April 8 at Uxbridge Baptist featuring well known bands Caves and Redemption.

Visit www.davidfestival.ca for full workshop and registration information, including early bird specials for those who register soon.
